MRS. W.G. HARDING'S CONDITION CRITICAL

Widow Of The Late President Suffering From Kidney Trouble

MARION, O., November 3.—(By the Associated Press)—Mrs. Warren G. Harding, widow of the late President Harding, was reported today to be in a critical condition at the home here of Dr. Carl W. Sawyer. She is suffering with kidney trouble.

Mrs. Harding has been ill for several weeks and has failed considerably since the recent death of Brigadier General Charles E. Sawyer, who was her personal physician and who was personal physician to Mr. Harding when he occupied the White House.

It became known today that yesterday Dr. James C. Wood, of Cleveland, was called to Marion for consultation.

Mrs. Harding is making her home at White Oaks Farm, the home of the late General Sawyer.

Dr. Carl W. Sawyer today issued this bulletin:

"Mrs. Harding's condition remains practically the same as last week. She has developed a number of symptoms that were present in her serious attack in 1922 in the White House. Other complications have arisen which were not present at that time and her condition now is rather serious."

Friends of Mrs. Harding say she has suffered with kidney trouble for years, but they attribute her present illness to the shock caused by General Sawyer's recent death following so closely the death of her husband, a little more than a year ago.

Harvey Makes Predictions; Claims Big G. O. P. Victory

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 3.—(By the United Press)—President Coolidge will win the election by a majority of at least 175 electoral votes, George Harvey, former ambassador to Great Britain and now editor of the Washington Post, predicted today.

The president's majority may even rise to as high as 277 electoral votes. The majority by which President Harding was elected, Harvey said.

Harvey gave Davis only the "solid south" of 114 electoral votes and conceded LaFollette only the 13 votes of Wisconsin, which, he said, LaFollette will carry "by the smallest majority he has ever received."

Other predictions by Harvey were:

That Republicans will gain absolute control of the house, independent of the 16 Republican insurgents who now hold the balance of power.

That the Republicans "probably" will gain senators in Massachusetts, Minnesota, Montana and Oklahoma and possibly in South Dakota, Kentucky and Tennessee.

Harvey said the New York gubernatorial race was too close even to warrant a guess, though "the latest secret poll of the Democratic managers showed a margin of 25,000 for Roosevelt which they hope to overcome in New York City."

The above estimates, Harvey said, "are predicted largely upon the conviction that more than half the women will vote for Coolidge who is their kind of man."

All Three Major Parties Claiming Victory As Campaign Comes To Close; Huge Vote Is Expected

BY PAUL R. MALLON
United Press Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—With all the battle over but the shouting, political generals of each faction dropped their shouting today and turned to count heads in an effort to prevent their maximum strength at the polls tomorrow.

Reports brought to Republican, Democratic and Independent headquarters indicated that if clear weather prevails, the nation will cast the largest vote in its history.

Each side issued statements of confidence that their favorite candidates would win.

Chairman Butler, for the Republicans, claimed 350 electoral votes, Chairman Shaffer for the Democrats, without use of figures, saw his faction winning on the basis of the "silent vote" and John M. Nelson, for the Independents, predicted election of Robert M. LaFollette.

Urged To Get Out The Vote

Every power of the big national organizations of each party was directed to get out the vote. District managers were informed by wire of the necessity of devoting the entire day to appeals to citizens at all hazards to register their sentiments at the polls between dawn and sundown tomorrow.

The campaign was definitely closed Saturday when spokesmen for each side summed up their campaigns in final speeches.

President Coolidge and John W. Davis, his Democratic opponent, will deliver radio addresses tonight but their chief concern is the appeal to citizens to vote. In recognition of political tradition that no votes change in the last 24 hours before election, Senator LaFollette retired to his home in Madison to await the outcome of the vote.

The firm beliefs of what the campaign has wrought each faction were outlined to the United Press by spokesmen for each as follows:

PRESIDENT COOLIDGE

Believes that his unique campaign, remaining in the White House at the Nation's work instead of stumping the country has been most effective and highly successful; that his strength in New England and the east will sweep westward and absorb any inroads the LaFollette Independents have made assuring him of election by a majority approaching the astounding majority of the Harding landslide.

JOHN W. DAVIS

Believes his two trips west which carried his campaign as far as Colorado and Wyoming will reap unexpected fruits at the polls; that the surveys which have been taken are prejudicial and misleading against him; that preliminary figures and estimates are un- (Continued On Page Ten)

10 Killed; 31 Hurt As Train Hits Street Car

CHICAGO, November 3.—(By the United Press)—Investigations from five different angles are under way here today to fix responsibility for the deaths of five women and five men in a collision early Sunday between a freight train and a street car. All of the victims in addition to 31 injured, were passengers in the car.

Coroner Oscar Wolf, personally directing the investigation, at his office, ordered John Brahe, crossing watchman, held, pending definite findings. Brahe did not lower the cross bars to stop the street car.

In addition to the coroner's investigation, police, both of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railroad and the Street Car Company, ordered probes of the accident. The Illinois utilities also ordered an investigation.

The accident occurred just before dawn Sunday, most of the occupants of the street car returning from parties and dances.

The freight train was backing out of a switch and without warning crashed directly into the car, which was cut in two in the middle.

None of the 41 who were hurt, sustained serious injuries and most of them attended the coroner's inquest this afternoon.

American Woman May Be Placed On British Cabinet

BY LADY ADDEN
United Press Staff Correspondent
LONDON, Nov. 3.—Lady Nancy Astor, former Virginia beauty who may be included in the cabinet list which Stanley Baldwin prepared today in anticipation of an invitation some time tomorrow to form a government.

Strong political influences are at work to have either the American-born peeress, who was elected to parliament at Plymouth for the 4th time, or the Duchess of Athol, another successful woman candidate in the next Ministry. Lady Astor has had the greatest experience.

It was confirmed today that Ramsay MacDonald will announce resignation of his cabinet tomorrow. The premier put in a busy day winding up his affairs at number ten Downing street. King George arrived at Buckingham palace to receive MacDonald's resignation and commission Baldwin to succeed him.

Ohio's Turbulent Political Battle Comes To A Close As Both Sides Claim Victory

COLUMBUS, O., November 3.—(By the Associated Press)—Ohio, a turbulent political battle ground for the last two months, was quiet today in pre-election day truce. Candidates who have been hurling charges, both verbal and written, at each other, were at their homes, waiting for the voter's verdict tomorrow.

The state campaign which virtually ended Saturday, was admittedly one of the hardest fought in years. It was marked by a bitter struggle for the governorship, between Harry L. Davis, Republican, and supporters of Governor Vic Donahey. That and the fact that the assembly was elected in a presidential year, kept interest sustained throughout the hectic days of campaigning when charges and counter-charges flew thick and fast.

The presence of the LaFollette candidacy on a third party ticket, an increasing number of women candidates, and the probable effect the Ku Klux Klan will have in the voting are other items that will mark the 1924 election in this state as a memorable one.

Both major party executives are claiming victory for their candidates by big pluralities, but T. E. Dye, Democratic state chairman, qualified his claims for a victory in Ohio for John W. Davis, Democratic candidate for president by saying Mr. Davis "has an even chance to carry Ohio, if we can get the Democratic vote out."

Governor Donahey, the state chairman asserts, will be "triumphantly re-elected."

His party, Clarence J. Neal, Republican state executive chairman, asserts, will "sweep Ohio Tuesday by one of the largest votes on record."

Neal's predictions are that President Coolidge will carry the state by from 250,000 to 350,000 and that "former Governor Harry L. Davis and the entire Republican state ticket, without exception, will poll a vote that will nearly equal that of the president."

LaFollette headquarters in Cleveland, so far have not made any claims for their candidate, who wound up his (Continued On Page Ten)

ELECTION RETURNS TO BE THROWN ON SCREEN AT SUN-TIMES OFFICE

Election returns from the nation, state, county and city, will be flashed on a stereophonic screen tomorrow night at The Sun-Times office and the public is invited to come. Three leased wires, two Associated Press and a United Press wire, will bring election returns from the state and nation. The forces of the Morning Sun and Daily Times will combine to canvass returns in the city and county and no effort will be spared to give the public the count of the ballots as quickly as possible. Election extras will be published as rapidly as returns justify.

Ashland, O. Police Chief And Sheriff Face Murder Charge

ASHLAND, O., November 3.—(By the Associated Press)—Sheriff Charles Starr, of Ashland county, and Chief of Police John Gorman, of Ashland, and seven other men, will be arraigned before Justice John A. Henderson, of Saybrook, O., this afternoon on charges of first degree murder in connection with the death of John Dalton, 35, a rubber worker, who was shot to death last Wednesday night on a road about three miles from here.

Affidavits charging the men with murder were signed by George Fear, brother-in-law of the dead man, and Basil Crawford.

The other seven men are: Deputy Sheriff Lewis Rept, Charles Gorman, son of the chief of police; Guy Taylor, Miles McCarthy and William Gullins, all sheriff's deputies; Herman Pelzer and Kels Kloppe, police officers.

Dalton and two companions were driving toward Ashland when they were commanded to halt. Before they did so six shots were fired into their machine, one striking Dalton in the head. He died almost instantly.

The officers had left Ashland to go to the home of George J. Free, former prosecuting attorney of Ashland county, where they intended to conduct a liquor raid. They were near the spot where Dalton was shot, having parked their machines nearby, according to Coroner T. S. Simus. Each member of the raiding party, according to the coroner, claims not to have ordered the machine to halt and all disclaim any knowledge of who fired the shots, but each admits that he heard the hail of bullets and the pistol reports.

The bullet taken from Dalton's head, the coroner said, is of the same calibre as those which were in the arms carried by the police officers.

Dalton was formerly employed in Mansfield.

John W. Davis To Wind Up Campaign Tonight in Address Over "Radio"; "Wounded" Twice in Political Battle

NEW YORK, November 3.—(By the Associated Press)—The long trail blazed by John W. Davis since he began his campaign for the presidency, reached its end today. Only a motor trip from his home in Locust Valley to a New York studio, where his last political address will be broadcast by radio tonight, remained to bring his campaign mileage to its grand total.

All engagements were cancelled to permit him to work unmolested at home on his address.

The plans arranged for the broadcasting tonight call for his arrival at WEAU studio at nine o'clock, the beginning of his address at 9:15 eastern standard time and its conclusion at 9:45. His campaign started with the speech of acceptance at Charleston, W. Va., August 8, and continued almost without a halt. Travel by railroad covered 17 states and aggregated more than 12,000 miles.

In all he delivered 230 speeches, not including the rear platform talks.

His campaign started with a flight from territory recently granted him from the Atlantic to the Rocky mountains on the west and from Rhode Island to Tennessee and Kentucky in the south.

He was "wounded" twice during the fight. On his visit to Wheeling, West Virginia, he was shot in the hand in such a manner as to wrench a tendon. Later at Buncheon, Mo., the tendon was wrenched again and his arm had to be bandaged, causing him for some time to use his left hand.

Mr. Davis, however, will emerge from the campaign in better physical condition than he enjoyed before. His hand in such a manner as to wrench a tendon. Later at Buncheon, Mo., the tendon was wrenched again and his arm had to be bandaged, causing him for some time to use his left hand.

Mr. Davis also is said by those who have been with him to have improved. His manner of speaking has become more forceful. The hesitancy and delicacy which marked him as a speaker at the beginning of the campaign have given way to a quietness approaching that of the veteran political orator's style. He has acquired "punch" and forcefulness while speaking which apparently is well liked by his audiences. His style, however, is still that of the lawyer and his argument is the kind which appeals rather to reason on the part of the listener than to emotion.

Plague Claims Score Of Victims

LOS ANGELES, CALIF., November 3.—(By the Associated Press)—State and federal health authorities today were moving to the aid of Los Angeles in its fight to block the spread of pneumonic plague, which at last reports had claimed 21 victims in the city's foreign quarters. Ten cases under treatment at the general hospital were said to be critical.

The senate situation may be summed up as follows:

1. Not enough seats are vacant this year—the senate elects only one third of its membership every two years—to enable the Republicans to reap the benefits of the Coolidge landslide. No matter how many gains are made by the Republicans the Democrats can continue their conditions as they have. In the present congress, two years hence will furnish the next chance for a turnover if the sentiment of the country retains its present conservative mood.

2. The Democrats next Tuesday can not possibly win control. Even if they won every seat for which they have a remote chance they would only have forty-nine or a majority of one.

3. Thirty-two seats are voted upon this year for the senate. Seventeen seats would appear to be Democratic and the remaining fifteen Republican. Of the fifteen, however, five are really doubtful for the Democrats. Of the fifteen, the Republicans are not sure of five. Thus the present Democratic strength of forty-three might be diminished by a loss of four they now have, but on the other hand, there is a good chance of picking up two Democratic seats in Republican states, so the net loss would be two. There is a fair chance of the Democrats (Continued On Page Ten)

Dr. W. H. Kellogg, state health department expert, surveyed the situation yesterday and announced that although there was no doubt about the nature of the malady or its seriousness, the prospects for bringing it under control were good.

Of the seven who died yesterday, two were men who had died in the performance of duty. One, Father Brull, a priest at the historic old Plaza Church went about the infected quarter administering extreme unction at the dying. The other, Emmett McLaughlin, was an ambulance driver.

Squads of policemen guarded the Mexican quarter day and night. Food and other necessities are sent through the cordon under strict supervision.

The mortality rate of the disease which is allied to the bubonic plague, approaches 100 per cent.

Reported squirrels probably brought the disease to Los Angeles and communicated it to rats which in turn probably transmitted it to the first human victim through the intermediary agency of a flea. Dr. Kellogg said in discussing the history of the plague in the United States.

Peace Parley Starts; Wu Appears Beaten

TIEN TSIN, Nov. 3.—(U. P.)—Fighting ended today and peace negotiations began between Feng Yu Hsiang and Wu Pei Fu. The latter is considered finally thoroughly beaten.

Reports from Mukden said that Chiang Tso Lin, having crushed a Chi Li army at Shanghai Kwan, was preparing to send three divisions to Tien Tsing to help finish off Wu. This may have hastened the latter's decision to capitulate.

Nine foreign gunboats and destroyers are in the river here and an American, a British and an Italian cruiser are anchored at Taku. All sent marines to defend their nationals in the city.

The Japanese and Italian concessions here, which are nearest the Chinese city, were strongly guarded.

Now for some election day weather that will please the also ran and the victor. So the former cannot blame their defeat on the weather. There's the election day dope:

OHIO—Fair and slightly warmer to night, Tuesday partly cloudy and cool.

KENTUCKY—Fair and slightly warmer tonight, Tuesday partly cloudy and cooler.

The extremes in the local temperature today were: High, 76; low, 28. The temperature a year ago today was: High, 62; low, 27.

First Baptist Church News

First Baptist church and Sunday School workers have important meetings scheduled for tonight and Tuesday.

Tonight a meeting of the official board will be held at 7 o'clock. Every member is urged to attend as there will be very urgent business regarding preparations for the tabernacle campaign.

Officers of the Philathea Class will meet with their teacher Mrs. H. Stewart Mills, 607 Weller street this evening.

On Tuesday evening the officers of the Men's Class and Barren Class will meet in the church office at 7 o'clock.

"Abie's Irish Rose" Here Next Week

The much heralded and long waited for engagement of Anne Nichols' most appealing as well as the most successful of all comedies, "Abie's Irish Rose" will occur at the High School Auditorium, the attraction being presented for three nights beginning next Monday evening.

There will also be a matinee on Wednesday afternoon, which will no doubt be welcome news to the playgoer who delights in good wholesome plays, free from bed-room or risqué lines and scenes where the most unsophisticated may be taken without fear of causing the slightest blush.

"Abie's Irish Rose" is without a doubt, the funniest play within memory. It is one continual laugh from the rise of the curtain to its final fall; thirty laughs to the minute is said to be contained in its brilliantly witty lines and situation.

"There would be fewer divorces in this country if the women were better cooks," a distinguished speaker announced recently.

Every woman in Portsmouth will have the opportunity of becoming a better cook by attending the Morning Sun Cooking School Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday at 840 Gallia street, next door to Horchow's.

The first day's lecture will be devoted to Deep Fat Frying, the second to cakes and icings and the third will deal with how to use economical cuts of meat, and the fourth, salads and salad dressings.

The Morning Sun Cooking School will be conducted by Dr. R. B. Shives, dietitian and food expert, who directed a cooking school here for the Horchow company last spring.

Sessions will last from 2 until 4 each afternoon and will be free to all Scioto County women.

The purpose of the school is to promote knowledge of foods, home cookery, domestic science, and the planning of daily menus to give the best possible family diet.

The detailed program for the four days follows:

Tuesday, November 4—2 p. m.
Lecture: The Key to Success in Cookery.
Demonstrations—Deep Fat Frying, Saratoga Chips, French Fried Potatoes, Virginia Snow Balls, Raisin Fritters, Tuna King Scallop.

Wednesday, November 5—2 p. m.
Lecture: Short Cuts to Cake Making and the Pitfalls of Cake Baking.
Demonstration: Cakes and Icings, Fluff Cake, Orange Layer Cake, Chocolate Fudge Icing, Seven-Minute Marshmallow Icing, Sunshine Surprise.

Thursday, November 6—2 p. m.
Lecture: How to Use Economical Cuts of Meat.
Demonstration: Low Temperature Meals.

Friday, November 7—2 p. m.
Lecture: Making Food Mixtures a Delight: Salads and Their Places in the Diet.
Demonstrations: Salad Dressings, Seven-Minute Mayonnaise, Thousand Island Dressings, Tartar Sauce, French Dressing, with Variations, Complexion Salad, Chiffonade Dressing, King Tut Salad, Snow Salad, Main Juggo Salad.

The school is free to all interested women and a large attendance is anticipated.

Body Recovered

HUNTINGTON, O., Nov. 3.—The body of a young man, 22 years old, was found along the C. & O. N. tracks at Given's Station six miles east of Waverly at 10:30 Saturday night.

It was found in four pieces, the head being 30 yards away from the torso, the right arm was crushed off and the right leg above the knee. The body has been moved to the mortuary of Leist and Davis of Waverly, where it awaits identification. Hundreds of people viewed the remains Sunday, but no identification was established.

The young man wore tennis shoes, had on light blue sweater with the initials R. O. on it and he wore a heavy dark blue sweater over the lighter one.

Wheelersburg Voters:

DO YOU WANT YOUR SCHOOLS TO CLOSE? VOTE "YES" FOR THE THREE MILL LEVY

Your vote and your support at the polls on election day for the 3 mill levy will be necessary if the schools are to be continued in the future.

Your support of the measure five years ago has enabled us to give you the best consolidated school in Southern Ohio, the verdict having been given by the State Department of Education at their last official inspection of the school.

The Wheelersburg schools for the last seventy-five years have been outstanding for their efficiency, equipment, and high class instruction. For this to continue we must carry the 3 mill levy again for another five years so that we may be able to get the State Aid to make up the deficit in our finances.

Do you know that the money raised by regular taxation will only operate the schools for about two months? The money raised by the three mill levy enables us to operate another two months. Then the state aid money enables us to operate the rest of the year.

So it is easily seen that if the 3 mill levy does not carry next Tuesday, the money we can raise by regular taxation will allow us to operate about two months. Do you want that?

In the last four years the State of Ohio has given us $55,913.02 because we have been paying the 3 mill levy. For every $1 we have raised by the above 3 mills, the State has given us over $2.

When you vote for the 3 mill levy you are NOT voting to raise your taxes, but only to continue what you have been doing the past five years, so that your schools may be kept to the high standard they have reached and maintained.

Let every voter in the district go to the polls and vote yes for the three mill levy.

Jugular Vein Severed When Man Is Thrown Through Windshield After Auto Hits Pole; Driver Missing

Lawrence Riggs, of Blevins, Lawrence county, Ky., is in a serious condition in Hempstead hospital as the result of an automobile accident late yesterday afternoon at the intersection of Gallia and Young streets.

His jugular vein was severed when he was thrown against the windshield.

According to witnesses the driver was turning his car from one side of the street to the other. He turned to look at someone he was passing when his machine collided with a telephone pole. The impact threw Riggs, who was also in the front seat of the car, through the windshield, the broken glass cutting his throat on the right side of the head and several places about the head and face.

The injured man was rushed to Hempstead hospital in Lynn's ambulance and was operated upon immediately.

The cut in his throat was about four inches long and was very deep, severing both the jugular vein and muscles in the neck. The cut extended from the chin to the back of the neck. Riggs was reported better today, but his condition is serious.

Police investigating the accident claim that the driver of the car ran after hitting the telephone pole. They are holding a man giving his name as Elzie Zimmerman, 43, of 2103 Ninth street, on a charge of being intoxicated. Police believe he figured in the accident. Zimmerman who was arrested on the victim's report that he had anything to do with the accident.

Officer Charles Crowe questioned the injured man at the hospital this morning about the accident and asked him who was driving the car. He stated that he did not know the driver. He says the man asked him if he wanted a ride and picked him up.

"There was a half pint of moonshine in the car, Riggs said, but I did not drink any of it. The driver of the car was pretty drunk," Riggs told Crowe.

The Ford car is being held by the police.

According to Riggs, who is 19 years old, he met the driver of the machine in Ashland, but he did not know him when he went to the home of a cousin in Ashland to spend Saturday night.

Riggs made a remark that he was coming to Portsmouth to see his sister, Miss Gertie Riggs, who came here over a week ago to work in a shoe factory, and the man volunteered to bring him to the River City.

Miss Riggs is staying with an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Fanning in Pullerton. Riggs has an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Hammett Riggs, in this city. They recently moved here from Kentucky and Riggs does not know their address.

Hopes were entertained today that when the Community Chest team workers meet tonight their reports would show more than half the goal of $65,000 already subscribed. Up until noon today the total had amounted to $26,105.72, less than half of the budget, but, as only less than half of all the teams working had made reports, this amount is expected to be swelled beyond the half-way mark this evening, when an effort will be made to have every team report on its activities in the first week of the annual drive.

The meeting for team workers will be held at 7 o'clock tonight at the Chamber of Commerce office. Solicitors on several teams report that they are meeting with a ready and willing response from a large number of persons who express themselves as being wholly in favor of the manner in which the Community Chest fund is divided among six worthy agencies.

The Community Chest campaign takes the place of six drives that were held annually before this plan was adopted. The Bureau of Community Service, Boy Scouts, Red Cross, Home For Aged Women, Salvation Army and Girl Scouts share in a division of chest funds.

The campaign will continue through this week unless team workers get busy and complete their work before this time. Managers of the campaign are hopeful that the goal will be reached before the end of this week.

Thieves Get Money, Peck of Apples

Thieves entered Pearl Hammock's home, 819 Prospect street Sunday and stole $3.50 out of a pocketbook, and a peck of apples which were in the kitchen. Police are working on a clue.

Auto Hits Pole; Occupants Are Hurt

McARTHUR, November 3.—A serious automobile accident occurred on the north pike Friday evening, when a machine driven by a young man named Campbell, of Swan township, failed to make the curve and struck a telephone pole, badly damaging the machine, as they were returning from here, where they attend the McArthur high school.

The most seriously injured was Miss Marjorie Kirkendall, daughter of Elder and Mrs. A. B. Kirkendall, of Creola, who sustained a deep cut on the head and an injury to her neck while it is feared she may have received other injuries.

Another occupant, Miss Edna Norris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Norris, of Creola, sustained fractured ribs, while the others were bruised.

Car Stolen; Recovered

A. L. Turner, Scottdale, Sunday informed the police that his Ford coupe had been stolen from his garage. Later in the day Turner, while walking in New Boston, located his own car, it being parked in front of the New Boston police station. No one at the station knew anything about how the car got there or how long it had been there.

Evidently the humorous auto thief must have his fun.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE

John (Burky) Jones

It has come to be well established, that sending too many lawyers to our legislative bodies has resulted in a whole lot of laws, many of which are neither wise nor necessary. A man of affairs, well acquainted with the needs of the public can be of better service. John Jones answers in every respect to such requirement. He is a sturdy intelligent citizen, who has proven in office that he does believe and actually practices therein the same honesty, the same diligence and the same economy that a prudent man brings to his own affairs. If elected to the legislature he would be a representative of the people, all the time mindful of their interests and always insisting on economy and results in spending the taxpayers' money. Scioto county will do a mighty good day's work in choosing him.

CHILD SWALLOWS STRYCHNINE TABLETS; DIES

MAYOR OF NILES
MAY BE SUSPENDED
BY GOVERNOR

COLUMBUS, O., November 3.—(By the United Press).—The official fate of Harvey Kistler, mayor of Niles, whose Klan and anti-Klan forces rioted until under the martial law which now rules the city. The governor has asked Hough to make a complete investigation of the outbreak touching upon both the efforts made by the local officials to stop the fighting and upon the participation of private citizens in the disturbance. Donahay's letter to Hough indicates that a grand jury investigation and possibly the suspension of the mayor may be in the chief executive's mind. The case of Sheriff Thomas is different as the governor does not have the same control over the sheriff as over the major. The governor's letter said in part: "I am asking you and your officers to make a complete investigation of the Niles disturbance. "While peace and order have been restored by the military, the episode has not ended so far as the courts and the governor of the state are concerned. "Perpetrators of this outrage against the fair name of the city of Niles and the state of Ohio must be punished speedily. "Civil authorities had ample warning and had time to prepare for the threatened danger. They failed. The reason for the breakdown of civil control must be ascertained and official dereliction, if any, punished."

SOCIETY

The Loyal Bercan Class of the Grandview Avenue Bible Class will meet tomorrow evening at the home of Mrs. Ernest Davis on Seventeenth street and Mabert Road. This will be a very important meeting and all members are urged to be present.

Your Judge

Does Scioto county need a change in the Judgeship of its Common Pleas Court.

Every public office holder should make an accounting to the public for his acts while in office. This is especially true when the official has been in office for a long period of time.

Judge Thomas has been Common Pleas Judge for two terms, a period of twelve years. He is now asking the public for a third term, or another six years, which would make a total of eighteen years.

No explanation has been made for his seeking eighteen years on the bench.

No accounting to the public has been made for his acts during the last twelve years.

Turn On The Light!

- 1—How many murders has Scioto county had?
- 2—How many robberies has Scioto county had?
- 3—How many hold-ups has Scioto county had?

Has Crime Increased or Decreased? Why?

- 1—How many criminals, found guilty of penitentiary offenses, have been given suspended sentences, and have been permitted to enter pleas to lesser offenses?
- 2—How many criminals have been sentenced to the penitentiary and later quietly pardoned before their time has been fully served?

Does this tend to decrease or increase crime?

Have your personal and property rights been properly protected?

Are you satisfied?

Nathan B. Gilliland is a candidate to be your Judge. He is seeking this office for the first time—first term and not for a third term, and not for eighteen years.

THINK BEFORE YOU VOTE.

Nathan B. Gilliland will administer justice without fear or favor.

330 Cast Absent Voters' Ballots

Three hundred and thirty Scioto county electors who have wandered to various parts of the country availed themselves of the opportunity to cast absent voters' ballots this year as compared to three hundred and eighty-five two years ago, according to Clerk W. N. Gableman of the board of elections.

The time limit for voting such ballots expired Saturday midnight but the total is expected to be increased slightly by other ballots arriving by mail and they will be counted, provided they bear a postmark prior to the time limit hour.

Pike Co. Roads Are In Good Shape

PIKETON, Nov. 3.—In spite of the fact that Road Supervisor W. F. Brigner has been handicapped by an inadequate force of men, from the standpoint of numbers, Pike County roads are in excellent condition, which fact is attested to by a Columbus traveling man who remarked that "the Pike county roads are in better condition than in any county in southern Ohio."

By the middle of next week the Scioto Trail will be re-gravelled from the Scioto to the Ross county line.

Supt. Brigner has had a force of men working on the washout, in the paved road between Piketon and Waverly which was caused by the spring floods, and this piece of work has been repaired in such a manner that it will stand the ravages of the Scioto for some time to come.

The section of the Jackson and Hillsboro pike which lies in Pike county is in excellent condition, and twelve miles of this pike which lies between Hillsboro and Sinking Springs is being repaired and by the first of December will be covered with crushed stone and gravel. Two tractors are working on this section of the road, putting on the finishing touches in preparation for spreading the gravel.

Supt. Brigner deserves credit for the condition of the Pike county roads which are in excellent condition in spite of the fact that he has been working only a small force of men since the middle of the summer.

C. H. S. Weak In The Passing Game

The main reason why Chillicothe looked so pitifully weak at forward passing Saturday was due to the fact that the orange line men permitted P. H. S. players to sift through and rush the passer. Time after time Eddy stood statue-like with no one uncovered to whom he could throw the ball. Another thing Chillicothe's forward passing was not intricate enough, every player of this character being easily analyzed. Then too the passers resorted to the short over-the-line passes, evidently not having been drilled in the long spiral passing. Hanley ensured on 30 yard pass and ran the other 20 yards for a touchdown. This kind of a thrill was too thrilling for Chillicothe and the players seemed to wilt when P. H. S. began to uncover its diversified aerial attack.

(Second Term).

When voting for RUSSELL G. KETTER for his SECOND TERM for COUNTY RECORDER, the voters of Scioto county will not be experimenting with unknown quantities but will be giving their support to an official who has done his work well and who deserves the support of every voter.

During his administration the office has been efficiently and economically conducted and not a complaint has been made concerning the affairs of the office.

He will appreciate your support and there is not one reason why every voter who believes in clean, efficient government should not vote for him.

Accomplishments—results—not promises nor excuses are demanded of men holding our high public offices. The affairs of good government need men who have the capacity to act with wisdom in the consideration of governmental affairs, men who have refrained from small practices and petty jealousies. Voters who consider the qualifications of their candidates demand honest and efficient servants.

1 Slashed state taxes $12,000,000.00 annually—boldly abolished State tax levy, thereby saving a tremendous sum of money for people of Ohio every year.

2 At the close of his term of office turned over to his successor the gigantic cash balance of $20,500,000, unprecedented in Ohio history; and this in spite of a deficit left him by the previous administration.

3 Overcoming odds of gigantic opposition, installed the first business-like form of government in Ohio, abolishing hundreds of sinecures and destroying wastefulness under which public funds had been squandered in the past.

4 Installed a monthly budget system, under which each department must show 12 times yearly it has not spent more than a twelfth of its appropriation, making short work of recklessness with public funds.

5 By large road construction program, aided to bring the farmer and city dweller in a closer contact, enabling the farmer to market his products more profitably.

6 Built 1,800 miles of new substantial roadway at an average cost of $4,000 less per mile than under the Donahay regime, as compared with only a few hundred miles constructed under Donahay.

7 Paid Ohio ex-service men adjusted compensation aggregating $32,500,000 of which $7,500,000 was taken from the state treasury, this having been made possible by tremendous savings.

8 Reduced unsettled workmen's compensation claims from 9,000 to 2,000 and increased this fund $9,000,000. Interest alone on the fund grew over $1,000,000.

9 Made Ohio a leader in law enforcement with arrests and convictions in nearly 7,000 cases, which netted the state $2,500,000 in fines or assessed liquor taxes.

10 Gave Ohio a business-like administration, a square deal, the sort of good government that highly recommends his return to office.

What You Should Know about a baby's care

Illness is usually due to constipation.
Quickly give half a teaspoonful of
Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

THE young mother should watch which foods the baby relishes most, which foods and their quantity cause distress, and act accordingly.

The good health of a baby is largely a matter of intelligent attention to diet. Nevertheless, in spite of your efforts you will sometimes notice belching, flatulence, wind and symptoms of colicky pain.

Give half a teaspoonful of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and thereafter vary the offending food. Syrup Pepsin is a laxative admirably suited to infants and children, as it is mild and wholly free from opiates and narcotics.

If you delay in giving it you will soon find the baby suffering from constipation, and that may lead to more serious illness. Half a teaspoonful promptly given will avoid trouble.

Many thousands of mothers have never given their babies any other medicine, but Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and they have successfully raised large and sturdy families. The formula is not a secret, being a combination of Egyptian senna with pepsin, and agreeable aromatics. The ingredients are stated on the package. Mrs. Dewey Walker, Elida, N. M., and Mrs. B. H. ginbotham, Outer Creek, Fla., are among the many who are firm believers that Syrup Pepsin has kept their families and themselves in good health.

No family with young children can afford to be without out such a household medicine. It is effective, beneficial and safe regardless of your age and has been considered so for over thirty years. In consequence it is today the largest selling liquid laxative in the world, over 10 million bottles being sold annually.

You will find that Syrup Pepsin quickly brings relief from the severe chronic constipation, biliousness, lack of appetite, sleeplessness, headache, cankers, bad breath, and to stop a cold or fever.

Every druggist sells it, and the cost on the average is less than a cent a dose. It is guaranteed to be effective in these symptoms or your money will be refunded.

Free Sample Bottle Coupon

There are people who very rightly prefer to try a thing before they buy it. Let them clip this coupon, pin their name and address to it, and send it to the Syrup Pepsin Co., 518 Washington Street, Monticello, Illinois, and a free sample bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin will be sent them postpaid by mail. Do not include postage. It is free.

President

crats winning two seats in New Mexico and Wyoming. Thus giving the Democrats the benefit of every break the most they can get is forty-five.

5. The Republicans may be counted as sure of Borah, of Idaho; Deen, of Illinois; Brookhart, of Iowa; Capple, of Kansas; McNary, of Oregon; Gillett, of Massachusetts; Conzons, of Michigan; Keyes, of New Hampshire; Edge, of New Jersey; Norris, of Nebraska, but not certain of Warren, of Wyoming; Goff, of West Virginia; Metcalf, of Rhode Island; Burgess, of New Mexico, or Schall, of Minnesota. The opportunity for gains in seats now held by Democrats occurs in Oklahoma, where W. P. Pine may take Senator Owen's place, beating former Governor Walton, the Democratic nominee, in Kentucky, where Fred M. Sackett is making a strong fight against Senator Stanley, and in Montana, where Frank Linderman is giving Senator Thomas J. Walsh the most desperate battle of his political career.

6. Under the most favorable conditions, namely a Coolidge landslide, the Republicans could gain five seats, which would increase the present Republican total of 63 to 68. Of this 58, however, at least nine could not always be counted upon to vote with the administration. They are Howell, of Nebraska; Borah, of Idaho; Ladd and Frazier, of North Dakota; Conzons, of Michigan; Norris, of Nebraska; Brookhart, of Iowa; Hiram

Johnson, of California; and LaFollette, of Wisconsin. This would leave forty-nine Republicans or just one above a tie. This is a margin too slender to be comfortable. The chances are also that the nominal Republican strength will not reach fifty-eight.

7. The Situation in the House
In the House of Representatives, the situation appears to be better for the Republicans. Of the 435 seats, all of which are to be filled this year, at least 202 are counted by Republicans as certain. Twelve others are running on the Republican ticket and will be elected, but ten of them are from Wisconsin and they are Republicans only in name and for occasional purposes of organization. The remaining 85 seats are doubtful. Of these Republicans will be happy if they get half. Suppose they win 30, the total would be 232 regular Republicans or fourteen more than the 218 needed to exercise control.

The Democrats are absolutely sure of 153 seats, two are Farmer-Labor probabilities and one Socialist, making a total of 156 non-Republican seats. Of the 85 doubtful, the Democrats have just as high hopes of winning a large number. They think they will get forty. Their optimism is not altogether unfounded for it will be noted that the LaFollette party has endorsed ninety per cent of all the Democratic nominees running for the house, while the American Federation of Labor has endorsed almost an equal number. There are few cases in which it is a three-cornered race. Thus the LaFollette vote and the Democratic vote can be reckoned as a coalition. The Coolidge tide is only a factor here and there for, while the president may carry a state's electoral vote with the assistance of the popular vote in strong Republican districts, the Republican members of congress have no such aid, particularly those running in districts in which the normal vote is about equally divided between Democrats and Republicans anyhow. Thus Massachusetts, which may give Coolidge the highest vote in its history, may be the scene of some Republican losses in congress. It all depends on local issues. Should the Republicans win a majority of ten or fifteen in the house they will regard it as a big victory and will proceed to organize the house without difficulty, especially in the selection of committee chairmen. The effect of a triumph of the regular Republicans is expected to be felt in the present senate, where the independent group would naturally fall in with the administration on more legislation than might be the case if the tide were running in the opposite direction.

The Coolidge administration can be hopeful of the co-operation of congress, but can not be sure.

All Three

less and "the silent vote" will elect him the next president. He confidently expects the smaller vote because of the bonus, the labor vote because of the recent switches in union endorsements in New York, the bulk of the women's vote on the basis of his managers' statements and the anti-klan vote because of his strong position against the Ku Klux Klan. With these and 180 electoral votes in the solid south he is sure that his poll will "surprise the nation."

ROBERT M. LA FOLLETTE.
Believes that under the surface conditions, the people throughout the country are aroused against the two major parties and will vote for him in uncalculated numbers, that more than sixty percent of the laborers will cast for him because of his endorsements, that at least he can expect to throw the election into congress and run in second place.

Reports that there might be rain in mid-western states have aroused each side at the last moment. General rainfall might have a serious effect in some of the doubtful farming states where roads to the polls are sometimes impossible in wet weather at this time of the year. A few thousand votes may swing about four or five of these states either way.

The campaign remains clear of the "underground methods" of some former years, right down to the last minute. There is no "whispering" about unpublished rumors concerning any of the candidates.

In the third, three-cornered election since the Civil War the country will elect a president, the complete membership of the National House of Representatives, one-third of the senate and most of state and local officials.

Polls in most states open at 8 a. m. and close at 7 p. m. Although there is a great variation. In Minnesota, for example, polls open at 6 o'clock and do not close until 9, in North Carolina they open at 6 a. m. and close at 5 p. m., and in South Carolina they are open from 8 to 4.

This election will be notable in that for the first time election returns will be received generally by radio. Many persons who are on previous election nights stand in the streets in front of newspaper offices to watch bulletin boards may this year sit in their homes and get returns as fast as they are recounted.

Ohio

campaign there with an address Saturday night.

That the vote this year will be a huge one, larger than that of four years ago, is conceded. This is due to a number of reasons, but principally to active and concerted efforts of neutral organizations over the state to get the vote out, halting the national slogan: "Vote as you please."

Four years ago, with women voting for the first time, on a national ticket, Harding received 1,182,022 votes to 780,037 for Cox, and there were 2,021,000 votes cast for president.

Davis who defeated Donahay at that time received 1,030,831 votes, and the present chief executive voted to defeat by a plurality of 120,000.

The doctor, seeking to comfort her a bit, said to her: "You will undoubtedly be able to obtain a considerable amount of damages, Mrs. Johnson."

"Damages?" said Mrs. Johnson. "What do you want with damages? Ah got enough damages now. What do you want is repairs."

Wrong Party

A certain lady called her grocer up on the telephone the other morning. After she had sufficiently scolded the man who was responsible, she said: "And what's more, the next order you get from me will be the last I'll ever give you."

"It probably will, madam," said the voice at the other end of the wire, "you're talking to an undertaker."

A Matter of Supply

He: "Women marry for money more often than men."
She: "Well, men have money more often."

Whether or not women will vote in greater or fewer numbers this year is a moot question. The League of Ohio Women voters and similar organizations, many of which did not exist in 1920, have been working hard to bring the woman out, but how successful their efforts will be is a matter only of conjecture.

This election, as far as the women are concerned, has been notable for the number seeking office. On the Republican ticket alone there are 38 women candidates who are seeking various offices from county recorder to state senator.

In Madison county there is a woman candidate—Mrs. J. E. Strayer—whom the voters have been calling the "Miss Ferguson of Ohio." She is seeking to be elected probate judge on an independent ticket, and like the Texas Miss Ferguson is out to avenge a defeat handed her husband.

Judge Strayer was defeated for re-nomination at the August primaries by J. E. Welsh, London attorney. This would have been Strayer's second term, and it is not customary to defeat a candidate for his second term if he has been "regular." Strayer's friends became incensed at his turnaround and prevailed upon his wife to run for the office he will relinquish in January. She has been making an active campaign.

Voters tomorrow will cast their ballots for a complete state ticket as well as for presidential electors and congressmen. Locally they will elect county officials and pass upon bond issues and extra tax levies.

Quiet Reigns

miles north of the city.

Names of suspects in the disorders are being furnished military authorities.

Adjutant General Henderson arrived in Niles Saturday at midnight and took steps toward investigating the rioting. The intelligence division of the militia is under his supervision.

Henderson yesterday held a conference with Mayor Harvey C. Kistler.

county prosecutor; Harry Burgess and Sheriff John E. Thomas and mapped out a plan for investigating the disturbance.

All persons who may be able to give information valuable in hunting down guilty persons are to be called. Informal examination of witnesses will probably begin today, Henderson said.

Henderson admitted the difficulty of obtaining evidence against persons responsible for creating the trouble.

Peace and quiet have prevailed in Niles since the establishing of martial law.

Ministers from their pulpits yesterday, pleaded for peace, asking their congregations to lay aside thoughts of religious hatred and join in tolerance and fellowship.

Rumors have spread like wild-fire through the city since the first disorders.

It was reported Sunday that a guardsman had been attacked and was in a serious condition.

The report is believed to have arisen from an attack made, according to military authorities, on Owen Scully, 33, who was beaten by three men and taken to Warren hospital, where he is suffering from a fractured rib.

Autos were allowed to pass through Niles Sunday, after traffic had been halted and diverted around the city Saturday.

Major Kistler said he would have a statement today.

He is known to have been absent from his home Friday evening and until after the disorders Saturday. He did not spend Saturday night at his home, although he was in the city for a conference with military authorities Sunday morning.

His home, along with those of other Niles officials, is being guarded by detachments of militiamen.

Five hundred guardsmen are in the city today, following the order yesterday that approximately 400 be withdrawn.

The troops are quartered at the American Fire Corporation, the Masonic Temple and the K. of P. Temple. The latter two places are in the central part of the city.

Qualified and not absolute martial law exists here.

The civil courts still function. Henderson explained, but they are under the direction of military authorities. Under absolute military rule, the court martial is used.

No time has been set for the abolishment of military rule, it being understood that the military authorities will remain as long as there is danger of further outbreaks and as long as their services are needed in bringing guilty persons to justice.

What North End Lincoln League Stands For

To be true representative citizens. That we will bring honor to our city, state and ourselves by giving honest and efficient service. That we will strive zealously to arouse and maintain our people's sense of moral duty. That we will uphold those noble ideals of justice, with malice toward none and good will toward all. That this organization shall be a permanent organization of this city.

The year nineteen hundred and twenty-four is a momentous year for our group. It brings us, as electors, face to face with the potent and paramount issues which have made their call to our group to consider and play its part. It was put to the Lincoln League of Portsmouth, Ohio, to send a message to President Calvin Coolidge, we would tell him that the Lincoln League, the rank and file, will continue to maintain that high position and principles that characterize Abraham Lincoln.

JOHN W. EVANS,
Chairman of Advisory Board.

Borah's Committee Not To Issue Statement on Probe

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 3. (By the Associated Press)—Chairman Borah of the Senate campaign fund investigating committee said today the committee would not issue a statement summarizing the testimony produced at its public hearing.

The Democratic national committee today reported to the senate investigating committee that a total of $818,311.97 had been raised in contributions up to October 20. During the period from October 21 to October 23, $125,492.91 was received. A disbursement report was not filed with the list of contributions.

At the same time the Republican national committee filed a statement showing the contributions of $121,451 during the five days from October 21 to 25, with expenditures of $539,280 during the same period. This brought total contributions to that date up to $7,251,309, but Chairman Hodges has testified total receipts were $3,742,000 to October 31.

BODY IS RECOVERED

With the finding of the body of Wayne Ferguson of Ashland in the Ohio river at Haverhill today the bodies of the two men who drowned October 22, when their boat was caught in a bear-trap at Dam No. 29 near Ashland have been recovered from the stream. The body of Mantey Clark was found Saturday at Ironton. The men were raising wickets of the dam when their boat was caught in the rush of water through the bear-trap. Coroner Virgil Fowler was called at noon and went to the scene to examine the body and ordered it removed to a morgue.

Ferguson was 41 years of age and leaves his widow and two sisters. Mrs. Ida Richardson and Mrs. A. J. Dials of Ashland. Mrs. Richardson identified the remains tied to the Ohio river shore near the Haverhill ferry float after being found by a fisherman at Haverhill. The remains all were turned over to an Ashland undertaker.

Judge Thomas Replies

EDITOR OF TIMES:

The article appearing in the issue of yesterday, November second, headed "Your Judge" signed "Chairman, Good Citizens' Committee", from the impression it seeks to create, requires a reply.

This article is an attack on the administration of Justice in the courts of Scioto county. While the article gives no facts, it seeks, by asking questions, to create a distrust in the minds of the people of this county as to the integrity and efficiency of the court and the administration of law. In order to create this distrust, the article asserts that an accounting should be made by the Judge of the Common Pleas Court, and that no such accounting has been made in the past twelve years. The "Chairman" of the "Committee" who prepared this article evidently is not a lawyer, or if he is a lawyer, has not informed himself, or has willfully misrepresented the facts.

The Judge of the Common Pleas Court handles no funds belonging either to litigants, or the public or anyone else. These funds are handled by the Clerk, Sheriff, Receivers, Trustees, or Master Commissioners, all of whom are required to, and do make a report, accounting for every penny handled by them, the Clerk of the Court elected by the people, keeps a record of the official acts of the Judge of the Court. The Clerk is required to, by statute, and does, make a report of the official acts of the Judge to the proper state official which report is printed by the Secretary of State in a public document for the use of every citizen of the State of Ohio. This report of the transactions of the Common Pleas Court of Scioto County has been made and published each year during the past twelve years and the "Chairman" of this "Good Citizens Committee" could have examined these reports, and have had all of the information sought by his inquiries, and have turned on the light and answered all of the questions contained in the article.

In order to create a distrust in the minds of the people as to the proper administration of justice in this county, the article seeks to convey the impression that the court is a place where murder, robbery and hold-ups are tolerated, where the law is not enforced against these and other class of criminals. It is a base slander on the good name and character of the law abiding, liberty-loving people of the county. In its effort to besmirch the court, it maligns not only the judge of the court, but the splendid people who, for the past twelve years, have served in the capacity of sheriffs, clerks and their deputies, prosecuting attorneys and jurors both grand and petit. Had the "Chairman" of this Good Citizens' Committee been sufficiently interested in giving the citizens of this county the facts, to have investigated the public records kept and published under the laws of the state, he would have ascertained that there is not a county in Ohio with as large a population that has a cleaner record from crime than Scioto county. This condition is the result of the splendid service rendered by its sheriffs, of the painstaking care of its clerks of court, of the thorough preparation, legal ability and tactful presentation of the handling of the state's cases by such men as Horace Small, Joseph Micklethwaite, George Sheppard and Anselm Skelton, its prosecuting attorneys, by the careful attention and intelligent consideration of the men and women who have composed its juries, both Grand and Petit, and last, but not least, by the sincere devotion of the great body of its citizens to the observance of and obedience to the mandates of the law.

The article does not stop by maligning the standard and character of the citizenship and the splendid service of the officials and the persons who have been chosen to serve as jurors of the county, but it undertakes to discredit the law itself, by inquiring as to the suspensions of sentences, of persons who have been found guilty of penitentiary offenses. Had the chairman of this committee investigated, he would have found that on account of the crowded condition of the penitentiary, reformatories and other penal institutions of the state, and a growing sentiment of the people of the state, in their effort to reform those who were criminally inclined, the legislature of the state in 1908 passed an act to provide for probation of persons convicted of felonies and misdemeanors. He would have further found that the executive department of the state, together with those in charge of its penal institutions had issued a written request to the judges of the courts of Ohio to carry into effect the provisions of the probation law wherever it was feasible and practicable. The humanity of the statute of Ohio required the judge of the court, after consultation with and approval by the sheriff, clerk and prosecuting attorney to suspend sentence in many cases.

For example, where a father was convicted of failing to provide for his minor children, he could give a proper bond with surety to the approval of the clerk, that he would pay under the order of the court such sum as the court designated, for the support of his children, the sentence would be suspended during such payment, thus furnishing to the child adequate support and relieving it from the stigma of being called the child of a convict.

The wisdom and humanity of this law has been demonstrated and vindicated by its operation in this county by the fact that of all the suspensions granted thereunder, only two persons have violated its trust imposed in them in commission thereafter of a penitentiary offense.

The "Chairman" of this "Good Citizens' Committee", if he had investigated, could have ascertained that neither the Common Pleas judge or any of the officials connected with the enforcement of law in the Common Pleas court, has any power to, or ever have granted any pardons to persons sentenced to the penitentiary or reformatories of the state. He could have learned that the pardoning power is placed by the constitution of the state exclusively in the governor, that this power is exercised by the governor, by and through a Board of Clemency appointed by him, that in the exercise of this power, they base their findings on recommendations and information obtained from various sources, frequently including the statement of the jurors who heard the cases, together with the statement of the trial judge, the prosecuting attorney, who prosecuted the case, and other persons who have knowledge of the transaction. If he had investigated, he could have further discovered the fact that while Scioto county has practically doubled its population in the past twelve years, that the number of murders, robberies and hold-ups have not increased in the county compared with a like twelve years preceding period.

As to the protection of the personal and property rights of the people of the county, had he interrogated the attorneys who practice at the bar of Scioto county, the judges of the Court of Appeals, and the records of cases taken up, he could have ascertained that there is a less percentage of cases taken from the Common Pleas court of Scioto county, Ohio, to the Court of Appeals than in any other county in this appellate district, conclusively indicating that the personal and property rights of those who appear in this court have been properly protected.

If he had further investigated, he would not have published this article without signing it, in direct violation of the provisions of Section 13343-1, of the General Code, which provides among other things:

"Whoever writes or causes to be distributed an advertisement, which is designed to influence the voters in any general election, unless there appears on such advertisement in a conspicuous place, either the names of the chairman or secretary of, or two officials of the organization issuing the same, or of some voter who is responsible therefor, with his name and address, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not less than $100, nor more than $1000, or imprisoned not more than one year, or both."

We respectfully suggest that the "Chairman" of this committee before he undertakes to criticize and question the administration of justice in this county, read the statutes and inform himself, so that he does not thereby, again, violate the criminal laws of the state.

We would not have felt called upon to pay any attention to this article, had it reflected only upon us, but in justice to the splendid character of our citizens, of the officials whose duty it is to aid in the enforcement of law, and the great number of splendid men and women who have so conspicuously contributed their part by service as jurors, both grand and petit, we feel that we are justified in giving to the public the above information.

Respectfully,

JAMES S. THOMAS

EXPLANATION

1. SCHOOLS

1. The rate for schools in the city in 1923 was 58 cents per $100 and such rate for 1924 is 87 9-10 cents per $100 or an increase of 29 9-10 cents per $100. This 29 9-10 cents was placed on the county records for collection because a majority of the voters of the City School District ordered it so done at the election in November, 1923, when they voted to exempt the school sinking fund levy—this is a fund used to pay the principal and interest on former bond issues—from all tax limitations.

2. COURT HOUSE

2. The county rate which was 57 1-2 cents per $100 of valuation in 1923 was increased to 66 cents per $100 in 1924, or 8 1-2 cents per $100. At the election in November, 1923, the voters of this county voted to bond the county in the sum of $650,000.00 to build a new court house, and at the election in November last year they voted to bond the county again in the sum of $100,000.00 to build a county jail. To pay these bonds and the interest on them will require for next year a rate of 8 1-2 cents per $100 of the valuation. There has been no increase in the county levy for any purpose whatever other than to take care of the above mentioned bonds. The county officials placed the rate of 8 1-2 cents per $100 because they were ordered to do so by the voters at the elections above named.

3. SINKING FUND

3. The difference between the increase of 40 cents and the sum of the two items above, or 16 10 cents, results from a slight increase in the operating expenses of the city and a small increase in the levy for the city sinking fund which was made for the purpose of taking care of bond issues of the city for which a sufficient levy had not been made by a Democratic administration, less a decrease in the state levy of 4 mills per $100.

The Times has been publishing statements about the increase in the tax rate of the city of Portsmouth for the next year in such a manner as to tend to mislead the voters of city and thereby cause them to believe that such increase is due to the fact that the county offices are filled by Republicans.

The Times has used the same TACTICS in Road Expenditures where it made comparisons with tax valuations of land and neglected to tell you that the Norfolk & Western Railway Company paid a large proportion of the purchase price.

The Times has used the same Tactics in its attack on Mark Crawford & Nathan B. Gilliland.

COMPLETE IRONING EQUIPMENT

The RID-JID Open-End Folding Ironing Table

The Rid-Jid has a big broad surface that affords a maximum ironing area and makes frequent shifting of the garment unnecessary.

The open end is essential for pressing the many circular pieces in every batch of ironing. The frequent lifting of the old-fashioned closed-end board is very tiring and consumes a large amount of time.

The Rid-Jid always stands absolutely firm and level. It is exceptionally sturdy and cannot possibly collapse or fall while in use. Built with steel reinforced joints, it will last a life time.

Cannot Wiggle, Wobble, Jiggle, Slip Or Slide.

The EDISON Electric Family Ironer

A most satisfactory iron to work with—and very durable!

The heavily constructed heating element assures a maximum heat without danger of overheating.

It's easy to iron with the Edison. The highly polished nickel-plated surface allows it to glide along without any resistance whatever, smoothing out the wrinkles as it goes. The gracefully pointed nose makes it easy to poke into the ruffles.

Then, too, there is the attached non-scorching stand, which makes it even more easy for you — it needs no lifting — simply tilt it back upon the end.

The Edison is a remarkably serviceable iron that makes ironing easier than you ever thought it could be.

Suit In Partition
Suit to partition real estate left of the estate of John A. Oakes, deceased was brought by Orin H. Oakes suing through Attorney T. C. Beatty in Common Pleas court Monday against Mayme Oakes Wright and others.

The land involved consists of a farm of 35 acres situated in Green township, and in his petition plaintiff says he is the owner of the undivided one-tenth interest in the premises, subject to the dower interest of Ruby W. Oakes, widow of the decedent.

Special Grand Jury Thursday
The grand jury will be convened in special session by Judge Thomas at the Courthouse Thursday morning to probe the murder of Edward D. Funk, New Boston oil station owner, who was shot to death in his place of business at Gallia and West avenues, on the night of October 21.

Lindsey Taylor and Jason Adkins are held in the county jail for the crime, the motive for which was robbery. Taylor has confessed to firing the fatal shots and Adkins has admitted that he was the driver of the auto which carried the gun-user away from the scene of the tragedy.

Accused of Misconduct
Alma Rose, 15, North End girl, taken into custody Sunday by the police for alleged misconduct, was sent to Juvenile court to answer to a charge of delinquency.

Critically Ill

Mrs. William Cooper is critically ill with pneumonia at her home in Highland, and her children have all been summoned to her bedside.

Niles Wins Fame By Staging Its Advertised Riot

NILES, O., November 3.—(By the U. P.)—Niles, which never enjoyed much fame beyond being the birthplace of President McKinley, now has the distinction of being the scene of the first pre-advertised riot of its kind in history.

Newspaper men, photographers and movie camera men were on the job waiting for trouble to start. Old and experienced reporters quartered at Niles three days before the outbreak, believed trouble would be averted before Saturday.

"It never happens," one said, "riots come unexpected. They are never pre-arranged like this, never advertised in advance."

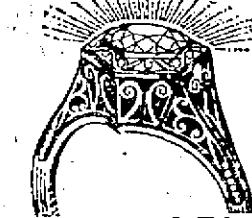

But the riots came neatly as promised, and for once the precautions of the press against being "scooped" on a big story were not taken in vain.

Notice To All Organized Labor

To all organized labor,

Lest we forget 2 years ago,

When union labor endorsed and elected our present Sheriff, believing him to be a union man and at all times fair to union labor. When naming the deputies he attempted to put in a man, his first deputy, but every craft raised up in protest and succeeded at the time, but in a short period of 60 days he appointed the same man. As to the Democratic candidate being practically a stranger, we are unable to say as to his attitude to union labor, but coming from a county where there is no such a thing as organized labor there it is possible, but not probable, that he is favorable.

Now, if organized labor is sincere and really wants to support a man for this office who has been tried and found true, then cast your ballots and use your influence for

A. F. MOATZ, Independent Candidate For Sheriff of Scioto County, Ohio

Elmer Morris, Secretary Lathers' Union.

Irwin Bowser, Secretary Plasterers' Union, No. 232.

John Houchin, Ports. Lodge 591, Brotherhood Locomotive Firemen & Engineers

Chas. E. Weeks, Machinists' Union.

Harry Baker, Moulders' Union.

Thos. Macintosh, Blacksmiths' Union.

Pearl Bertram, Boilermakers' Union.

OBITUARY

William Carey Ferguson
A wide circle of friends in this community were saddened last evening when it became known that William Carey Ferguson had passed to his eternal reward, the end coming peacefully to this respected citizen at 8:30 o'clock at Schirman hospital, where he was taken recently in order that every effort might be made to prolong his life. Gathered at his bedside were his immediate family and other friends and relatives. He had been unconscious for some hours before his passing, his last words having been uttered to his faithful wife, who was over at his bedside, administering to his wants in his final illness, as she has since the time when they were united in marriage.

In the final dear moments, which will live forever in the minds of the family, there were the serene peace, the calm courage of one prepared to meet his Master, which came to those whose belief is in the Christian religion, and whose mode of life have insured that wonderful greeting, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant."

It was fitting that as the soul of Mr. Ferguson sped onward that in the room where the great transition that comes to all who are mortal, was taking place, the dominant influences should be home and church, for it ever a man in this community so lived as to add new meaning and dignity to unquestioned loyalty to home and church, it was Mr. Ferguson. To him business, the matter of earning a livelihood, of providing for the wife and the children with whom their union had been blessed, were of but secondary importance. They were matters which a husband and a father must meet and solve without flinching, without undue anxiety to gather more than his share of this world's goods, and in this spirit he labored and prospered. But to his home and to his church, All Saints' Episcopal, he gave his best. The unselfish, unquestioned service that he gave to his church, and the simple, noble life that he lived in his home, have built all unknown to him a monument to his memory that will long survive.

Mr. Ferguson belonged to the Masons, the United Commercial Travelers, was secretary of the J. M. Davis Shoe company and vice-president of the Jones-Ferguson Grocery company.

William Carey Ferguson, son of Samuel Seelye Ferguson and Josephine Clemons Ferguson, was born at Pine Grove Furnace Oct. 20, 1860. His early years were spent at South West. When a young man he came to Portsmouth and went into the dry goods store of C. F. Herms and soon after went with the W. A. Connolly firm and traveled through Kentucky and West Virginia for many years.

In 1900 Mr. Ferguson and Mr. E. O. Jones formed a partnership and started the Jones-Ferguson Grocery Company. At the time of his death, he was vice-president of the firm.

In 1887 he was married to Ruth Boylan Bedell, and to them were born four children: Ruth, Homer Davis, Frank S. Ferguson, and Homer Purcell, who died in infancy, and William Oldfield Ferguson.

He was reared in the Methodist faith, and in 1893 was confirmed in All Saints' Episcopal Church, where his wife was a member.

In 1907 he was elected a member of the Society of All Saints' and made treasurer of the church, after which he served as Junior Warden, and for several years had been Senior Warden. He also served as teacher in the Sunday School.

Mr. Ferguson was a member for many years of the Aurora Lodge, Free and Accepted Masons, a charter member of the U. O. T., and a member of the Modern Woodmen. He leaves to mourn his death two sisters, Laura Mougey and Ella Countryman, who were with him at the time, and one brother, Frank S. Ferguson, Sr., of Denver, Col., who is on the way here.

Dear also to him were those connected by marriage, the sisters, Sallie Oldfield and Georgia Cablish, the son, J. Frost Davis, daughter, Miriam E. Ferguson, and the life-long friend, Mary A. Dodson, who has been one of the family for many years, and two grand children, Jack and Betty Davis.

Three and a half years ago Mr. Ferguson met with a severe accident, when the cable broke and the elevator at his place of business fell, carrying him from the third story to the basement. Complications resulting from this accident, after three and one-half years, caused his death. For weeks he hovered between life and death. After going back to business, complications developed, from which he never enjoyed a well day and was under the physician's care until the day of his death. Four weeks ago he entered Schirman hospital for treatment, where everything that the loving hands of the nurses and physicians could do, was done.

He passed away quietly Sunday evening, Nov. 2, at 8:30, at the hospital, surrounded by his family and relatives. Services will be from the home, 711 Court street, Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, conducted by the rector of All Saints, Rev. Harold H. L. Friends are invited to the services at the home. Burial in Greenlawn will be private.

William Leach
McARTHUR, November 3.—William Leach, 68, passed away at his home here, after several days illness. He is survived by his wife and one son, L. L. Leach, editor of the McArthur Democrat-Enquirer; a granddaughter, Miss Nellie Leach, of this place; a brother, Barnett Leach, of Clarkburg; two sisters, Jeff Crumbolt, and Mrs. James Fip, of Washington, D. C. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon.

John P. Malone
Death Sunday afternoon at 4:20 claimed John P. Malone, a well known citizen, who passed away at Mt. Joy, where he recently went for his health. His death was caused by tuberculosis and followed extended illness. He was married April 6, 1912 to Miss Helen McCall and she survives in addition to Mr. Malone's mother, Mrs. Henry Wedderbok of 2020 Eleventh street and four brothers: Earl, William, Homer and Howard. After their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Malone resided in Cleveland for eight years. Funeral services will be conducted from the Wedderbok home at 2:30 Tuesday afternoon and the last rites will be in charge of the Rev. E. H. Dailer. Interment will be in Greenlawn.

Mrs. Sarah Cornelius
Death about six o'clock, Monday morning claimed Mrs. Sarah Cornelius who was a well known resident of Seaman, O., for many years. Mrs. Cornelius had been a patient at Hempstead hospital since June 20. Complications caused death. Her condition had been serious for the past week. She was 66 years of age.

A brother who is an undertaker at Seaman arrived here this morning to arrange for the return of the remains to the home this afternoon.

Double Funeral
Double funeral services for Mrs. Alice Willis Hollbrook and son James Jackson, three years old who lost their lives Friday when the automobile in which they were riding was struck by an N. and W. passenger train on the Franklin Furnace crossing were held this morning from the Berean Baptist church at Scottdale with a large number of relatives and friends attending the last rites. The body of the child was taken to Hempstead hospital.

Boys Nabbed; Released
N. & W. Detective Andy Leslie and Elmer Pratt this morning took into custody three boys giving their names as Cecil Moszer, 8, of 1712 Gallia street, rear, Lloyd Stevenson, 10, of 2207 Ninth street, and Harold Hamilton, 8, who admit breaking into an N. & W. box car and stealing grapes and candy, the officers say.

The boys were later released.

KUPENHEIMER WEEK
Harold Welling arrived here today.

W. S. Curtis
Mrs. J. J. Conner of 1935 Twentieth street was called to Marysville today on account of the death of her uncle W. G. Curtis who passed away there Sunday afternoon. Mr. Curtis was well known in this section and Pike county as a trainer of race horses. He was active in the training of racers until his health failed four years ago.

Private Branch Exchange and ask for department with which

A PARTING WORD

TOMORROW will be election day, and most voters may have made up their minds by this time, as to exactly how they are going to mark their ballots.

The Times feels it has done its full duty in pointing out to you why you should vote for certain local candidates, but it wants yet to offer ever so briefly a few suggestions as to your duty as a citizen.

It has pointed out to you how cabals and oligarchies of a few individuals assume they have a right to place their favorites in all the offices, and the danger of such a pretension. These combine do not choose candidates because of their peculiar fitness, but because in public office they are going to do the will of their masters, officials not seeking to serve the people, but ever striving to keep the favor of those that gave them the places.

That's just why we have abuses of public offices, why tax money is squandered to scant benefit of the public, and why this eternal demand for more taxes.

Particularly flagrant examples of official maleficence sometimes come to light, but how much else goes on that is successfully concealed. One of the most effective ends to concealment is the choice of officials, who owe their jobs to a few—successors are chosen in the same way and they were not expose what they have found out.

It doesn't matter to this paper who fills the county offices; it is largely indifferent as to the politics of any local official. What it wants above all things is a clean and efficient administration of public service.

It believes that can only be attained and retained by changes in the reputed politics of the incumbents.

The owners of this paper have worked on all sorts of newspapers in many different places. They know the operations of political bosses and political machines. They have never known an instance where the bosses bossed unchecked for a long time and the machines ran smoothly in choosing their own men, that grave abuses did not creep into the administration of county affairs. And it didn't make the least difference whether the bosses and the machines were Democratic or Republican.

The only cure was a change to the other side.

WHOOPLA AND HOORAY

NOW comes the rather belated announcement that Cautious Cal will soon make a decision on the matter of reducing the tariff on sugar, as recommended to him some months ago by the tariff commission.

Meantime the gentleman is so nicely balanced on the pole that it is not expected he will take a tumble therefrom before the polls are closed near this hour tomorrow.

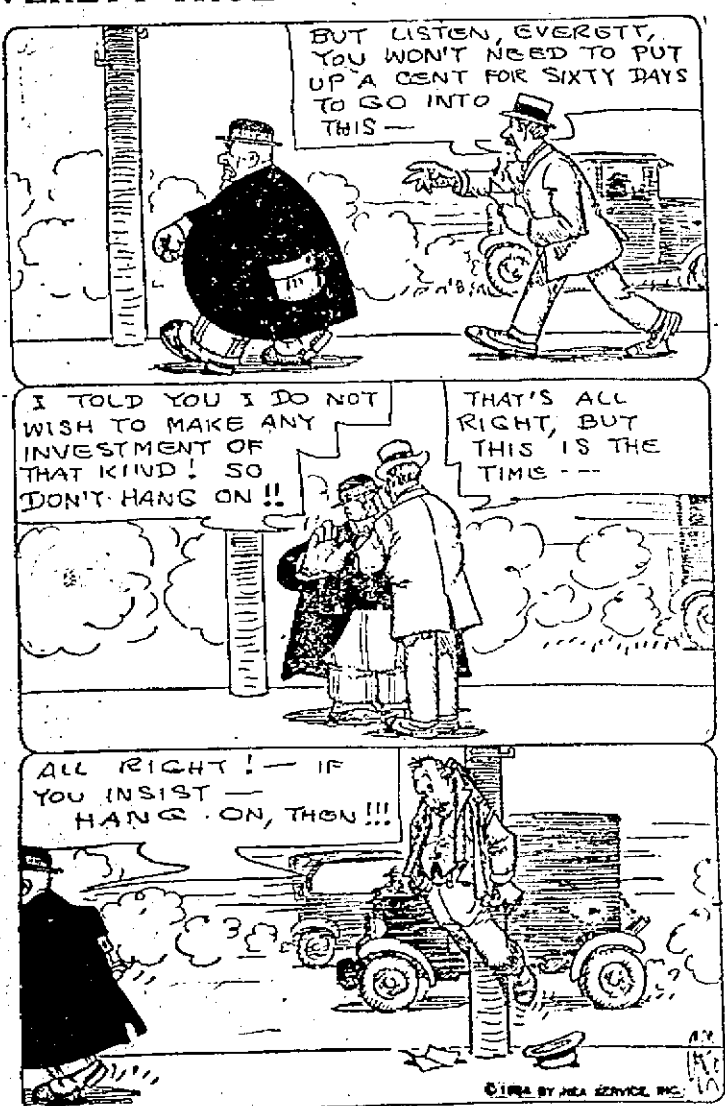

And also meantime his electioneering trap, like the old Negro's con trap is set to catch the animal a-gwinnin' or a-comin'. For it is announced that he is likely to decide on a cut in the duty, but don't be too hasty, he has got to have more testimony on the sugar beet side of the controversy before finally closing his open mind.

So everybody is expected to vote for him, the millions who pay three cents a pound tariff, every time they buy a pound of sugar, as well as the trusts and monopolies that control the sugar market.

KENNEDY FOR CONGRESS

CHARLES C. KEARNS has represented this district in congress for the past ten years. Can any one point to a single constructive thing he has done for the good of his district, or his state? He has been living over at Washington, he has been industriously drawing his salary, and that is all. By seniority rule Kearns has gradually gotten on some important committees but once there he has been a cipher, a yes and no man trailing in the wake of Nick Longworth, Cincinnati congressman. Voters of the Sixth district have a chance this year to retire Mr. Kearns to his law practice in Hamilton county by voting for Hon. E. H. Kennedy, of Georgetown, the Democratic candidate. Mr. Kennedy is a business man of wide experience. Living in a rural community he understands the needs of agriculture. As a successful man of affairs he understands the needs of honest business. He is splendidly equipped to render real service to the Sixth district. He should be elected and The Times trusts that Scioto county will do her share towards his election.

EVERETT TRUE BY CONDO

BALANCE DUE ESTATE—NOTHING

THE TIMES has been turning the searchlight upon the probate court of Scioto county as administered by Judge Gilliland, and incidentally has printed some records concerning Mark A. Crawford, a candidate for probate judge, tending to show to the people how abuses have crept into this office and why they should exercise the utmost care in voting for probate judge. We have said repeatedly that we did not think Mark A. Crawford the proper man to elect probate judge. There has been no response from Mr. Crawford or his managers, nor from the Republican campaign committee. Now it is the eve of election. If there was anything to be said in Mr. Crawford's favor we submit to the voters it should have been said long ago.

We want you, Mr. Voter, to remember this—We quoted Mr. Crawford's record in but a single case. In that case, the Amelia Moyer estate, he handled it in such a manner that he got every cent there was left. "Balance due estate, nothing." That is Crawford's record. Do you want him to sit in judgment upon you and yours?

And remember this—Mr. Crawford, as soon as The Times began to get curious on the Moyer estate, withdrew all papers from the files, receipting for them for ten days, or until after the election. We ask you, why? Of what value could these papers have been at this day to Mr. Crawford? How can we know whether or not statements he may make now as to these papers are true or garbled?

But with all that has been said and done, whether the estate was large or small, remember when you vote that every cent of the estate that was left after debts had been paid, was spent in costs and fees.

There it is. "Balance due estate, Nothing."

THERE'S REAL FUN IN IT

WE never knew just how much humor there was in politics, though we have often heard it was a "funny" business, until we read the card in the Sunday paper, signed "Chairman Good Citizens' Committee."

It took the amusing position that because James S. Thomas is a candidate for a third term as common pleas judge he should not be elected.

Why, brethren, the fact that a man has held office more than one term does not disqualify him. If anything at all it ought to give him more qualification, because on the face of it, continuance in office is reasonable proof that satisfaction has been given therein, and it ought to be additional qualification, as the good and sensible official always profits by experience.

The advertisement becomes real rollicking when it proposes that Nate B. Gilliland ought to be elected because he is running for this particular place the first time. For, as we all know, Nate, for 10 these thirty years, has been a perennial seeker after a steady swig at the public teat and the roaring humor of it is that he, the said Nate, is just concluding two terms as probate judge.

Now as to argument that's not only funny, but it is bad logic. If Nate be elected he'll have his third term as judge because he would transfer from the probate judgeship, which he now occupies, to common pleas.

We never heard before of a Good Citizens' Committee. We think it exists for campaign purposes only and that Gilliland himself is chairman, officers, members, all by his lonesome.

The card sounds mighty Nate-ish, that's sure, and is in exact keeping with Nate's electioneering methods.

People are supporting James S. Thomas, not because any man has a right to an office, but because he has made an honest and capable judge and they believe experience has strengthened him.

OF INTEREST TO THE CITY

IT is rather peculiar that the citizens of Portsmouth take little concern in county commissioners. Yet, there are no other offices that are of so much importance to them.

Portsmouth pays three-fifths of the entire taxes of the county. The commissioners have entire control of the expenditure of the huge part of the two-thirds that go into the county treasury.

The commissioners are sole directors of road matters, outside the city and the incorporated villages. In the city are about five-sixths of the automobiles.

Certainly, then good roads are vital to every inhabitant of the town.

Upon the discretion of the commissioners depends what sort of roads we shall have.

The sort of commissioners the men that are offering therefor then becomes a most serious concern, in fact.

The Democrats are submitting for these positions William Bennett and Charles Burcham. Both of these stand unequivocally for good roads, they stand also for the public getting full benefit for every cent expended on the roads. They both have experience in their construction, they are both honest. A vote for them means a long push ahead for good roads.

THE SCHOOL LEVY

THE voters of Portsmouth should, by all means, vote in favor of the three mill school levy. This is not a new levy, it is just a continuance of a levy that has been in force for five years past. It is made necessary by the growth of Portsmouth and the expansion of the schools. Vote on this school levy and vote Yes.

SMASH COURT HOUSE RING

THE Democratic county ticket is composed of well qualified, honest, excellent men and women. If elected they will give to the people a maximum of service at a minimum of cost. In simple justice to themselves the voters should elect these candidates running on the Democratic ticket and smash the ring that has so long controlled the court house and controlled it in their own selfish interest. Vote to turn the light on the doings at the court house.

LEST YOU FORGET

YOUR tax rate has been raised from $2 up to $2.40 by officials, whom a political oligarchy and "the right of deputy succession" have placed in charge of public affairs.

The records of a candidate, who is accused of charging excessive fees in a guardianship matter, have been taken from the court house, by the same individual, until after election. The same sort of officials permit that.

Hill side lands, not worth ten dollars an acre, have been bought for road purposes at the rate of all the way from $3,200 an acre to $4,800 an acre. The same sort of officials did that.

A report of a state examiner, showing a county treasurer had charged and been allowed clerk hire that was never rendered, was concealed from the newspapers and the public for over two years, by the same sort of officials.

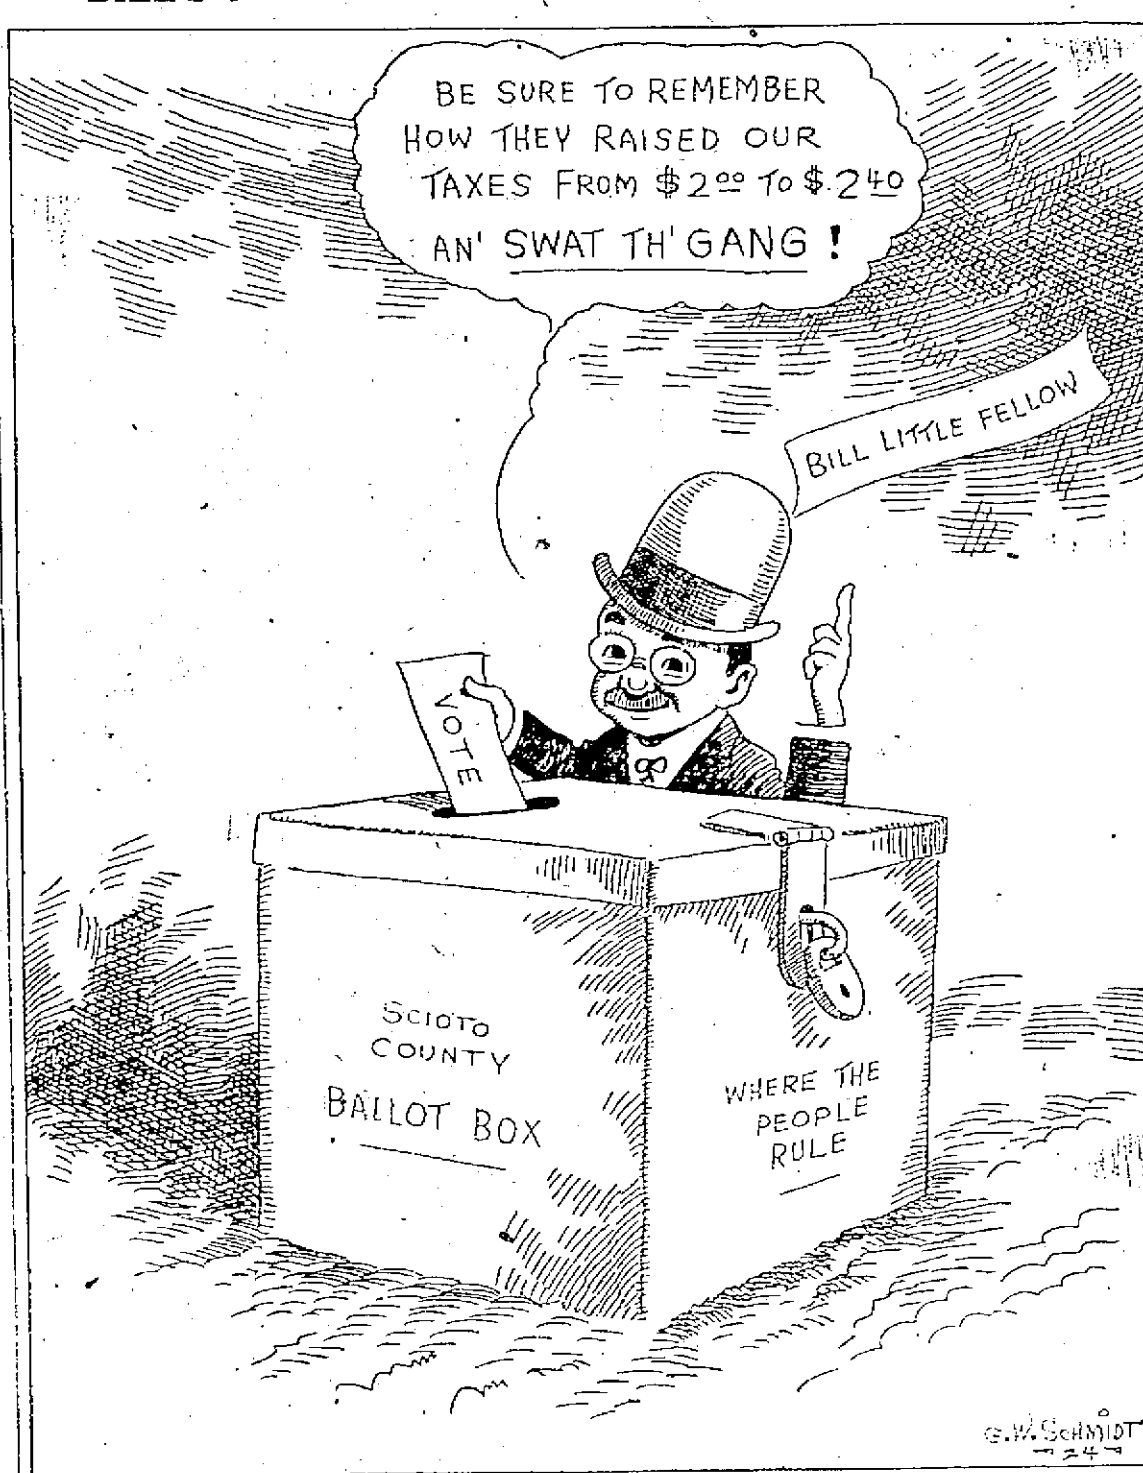

A retiring sheriff was saved from indictment by only one vote, through the act or intervention of a prosecuting attorney. Both were the same sort of officials.

A probate judge has made a practice of allowing unduly fees to attorneys. The same sort of an official.

These same sort of practices have prevailed for years, they will go on for years more under the same system by which offices are parceled out in this county.

Vote for a change.

BILL'S CHANCE TO SMASH THE TAX SPENDERS

NEW YORK DAY-BY-DAY

BY O. O. McINTIRE

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—A page from the diary of a modern Samuel Pepys: Early up and thither to breakfast at a charity bazaar, where came some great lords and lovely ladies and pale jongleur read some verse which was very sad.

Thence to a projection room with Julian Johnson and saw a film, ran off and talked awhile with Fiebe Danils, a wistful cinema lady. Afterward to walk through the town with my wife, poor wretch, and heard a man cry he had been bitten by a tarantula.

In the afternoon with Tex Austin to the Garden to see his rodeo and came also Maybelle Manning, Paul Reinhardt, Mrs. Burton and some others and then to Texas Gulman's party, all very merry.

To a club in the evening to join some heavy rascals in a game of pool but faked at so much bantering and so joined Gene Buck in a grave discussion of the theatre. Late home and to bed.

Thorley's famous "House of Flowers" is to become a Child's restaurant. The house was once owned by Russell Sage. When it was sold the late Charles Thorley paid $41,000 for it and making it over into a florist shop amassed a huge fortune. When he died he left the business to his employees. This makes the third Child's restaurant to invade the avenue. There are also two five and ten cent stores on the street.

Mother Bertilotti's cafe in the Village now bears a prohibition padlock. It was the haunt of the shorthaired ladies and long-haired gentle men of Bohemia. There were many velvet jackets and flowing ties. Of the little tables many ephemeral verses were polished and many short stories begun. At the dinner hour the place was filled with available and careless egotists who raved the ups and downs of existence with philosophic exanimity. Mother Bertilotti was a buxom, apple-cheeked woman with graying hair. She claimed the dissenting but regarded as a nother quies so many children. She saw that many of her patrons were merely going for larger efforts. For indeed many who later achieved in the arts sprouted their pin feathers in the atmosphere of the cafe.

New Yorkers have an idea that most people who do not eventually come here to live are the same people who never make a step in love without questioning the love-lorn editor; whose literature consists of mail order pamphlets; who hang dead snakes on the fence to condemn the rain god and who saucer their coffee and eat pie with their knives. But they overlook entirely the fact that when these people from Illegit Hallow do come here they are the people who occupy big executive jobs, live in the $20,000 a year apartments and have a well packed garage.

One of the roystering blades of the Lambs was importuned by telephone to join in an uptown apartment revel at one o'clock in the morning.

"I'm sorry, old man," he said, "but I'm beer in my room with a case of neuritis."

"Bring it along," said the voice. "This crowd will drink anything."

An upper Broadway cafe has a lighted sign over the door which reads:
